ACQUITTED BY SQUIRE RICHIE

Mrs. Sarah Richie, Charged With Stealing 20 Chickens is Found
Not Guilty.

TRIAL ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

Prosecutor Dennis O'Neil Assisted by John Kiplinger, Examined Three Witnesses For State.

Mrs. Sarah Richie, charged with stealing twenty chickens valued at $12 from Philander Witters was found not guilty this morning by Squire Richie and discharged. The case attracted a large crowd and the Milroy court of justice was packed to the doors.

The trial came to a sudden ending and those that had expected something sensational were due to disappointment. The State rested their case after three witnesses had been examined and the defense was content to let it go at that and never put a single witness on the stand. The testimony introduced tended to show that the twenty chickens had disappeared on Saturday night while Witters was attending a lecture course in Milroy, between the hours of eight and ten o'clock, and that they returned in about twelve hours. According to Squire Richie, it was not proven that the chickens were stolen.

The first witness was Philander Witters, who was the prosecuting witness. Mr. Witters stated that before going to the lecture that night he had counted his chickens and had a total of 147. On returning home he again made a count and found that 20 had disappeared. On Sunday morning he went to Squire Richie to get a search warrant and while in the squire's office received word that his chickens had returned home. He stated that he saw Mrs. Richie's brother, William Witters, in Milroy that morning. On cross examination he said that he had been in the habit of counting his chickens very frequently and had counted them only six days before. In questioning him B. L. Smith, attorney for the defense, tried to bring out that there had been ill feeling existing between Witters and Mrs. Richie.

It was shown that there is a wheat field between Mrs. Richie's home and that of Witters. It has been customary for their chickens to wander into this field and Mr. Smith brought out that it might have been possible for Witters chickens to have been over there at the time he missed them.

Miss Mabel Ruddell was the next witness. She lives directly across the road from Mrs. Richie and on this Sunday morning saw William Witters (Continued on Page Four.)

AUTOS CRASH TOGETHER

Mrs. T. H. Parry Suffers Severe Shock
in Accident.

Mrs. T. H. Parry, who is extensively related here and who lived in Rushville at one time, was badly shaken up in an automobile accident in Indianapolis, her home, last night. A machine, owned by Fred H. Sillery, became unmanageable and skidded on the slippery streets. In attempting to avoid another machine, it was turned to one side and tore through an iron fence. The Parry machine, in which Mrs. Parry rode alone, ran into the side of the skidding auto, but no damage was done. Mrs. Parry was not thrown from the machine, but was severely shocked by the accident.

Miss Noble had been ill for some time suffering from tuberculosis. Besides her parents she is survived by five brothers and one sister. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at the Fairview church. Burial in the church cemetery.

LAST EFFORTS TO RAISE LIGHT FUND

Committee Busy Today in Attempt to Overcome Deficiency of $320,
Made by 5 New Posts.

PRIDE OF RUSHVILLE AT STAKE

There should be enough public spirited people in Rushville to come forward with small subscriptions to make up the deficiency to pay for the sidewalk cluster lights. It is found that there is about $320 needed yet, which must be made up by public subscriptions. The business men have already given far more than their share and it seems that there should be some people among the residents who have enough pride in Rushville to give small subscriptions and make up the total.

The light committee went to work in earnest this morning and got $85 in new subscriptions. They went to work this afternoon to raise as much more if possible. It was announced authoritatively a few days ago by a local publication that the fund was just $88 short which was not true as it did not come from official sources. The committee did not think that the fund as short as it is until a member counted the connections that had been made for the lights and found that there were fifty-five when only fifty posts had been ordered. That makes it necessary to buy five more posts, which added $256 to the deficiency. With the five posts added the lights will be uniform over the down town district and will present a pretty sight.

MISS BESSIE CRUSH DEAD

Passed Away Suddenly at Home in New Salem.

Miss Bessie Crush, 22 years old, died this afternoon about two o'clock at her home in New Salem. Miss Crush's death was very sudden, she being ill since last Saturday. She is survived by her father, Richard Crush and one sister. The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at nine o'clock at the residence, conducted by the Rev. Paul Stewart of Milroy. Burial will take place in Spring Hill cemetery.

TWO FINED BY MAYOR BLACK.

Two cases of drunk appeared before Mayor Black today, both men being arrested by Policeman McAllister. The first was Jerry Gordon. He was arrested last night and when arraigned this morning pleaded guilty. His fine which was one dollar and costs was paid. Lee Gilson was brought up this afternoon and received a similar fine which was stayed. Gilson was found at the corner of Seventh and Sexton streets.

MAKE PLANS FOR 'BIG WEDNESDAY'

Merchants Hear Many Plans and Suggestions at Regular Session in Court House.

MANY QUESTIONS DISCUSSED

Business Men Decide to Sweep Main Street Themselves as Last Resort.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Rushville Retail Merchants Association was held in the court house assembly room last night, when a larger crowd than has been in attendance for a number of sessions, was present. Tentative plans for "Big Wednesday" were made and discussed, while a complete mailing list, street oiling, the problem of cleaning the paved streets and numerous other important topics came up for their share of the controversy.

Toward the close of the meeting Ralph Payne arose and said: "I ate enough dust today to make up for a long time and I would like to see some plans made for cleaning Main street." That caused a discussion and an exchange of opinions, which resulted in a rather unique decision on the part of the members of the association. It was unanimously decided after a motion by F. E. Wolcott and a second to it, that each merchant should sweep the brick street in front of his place of business each morning before nine o'clock. It was planned for each merchant to begin at the middle of the street and sweep the debris toward the gutter, where it will be piled up so that it may be hauled away. Councilman George F. Moore, who was at the meeting, guaranteed that a wagon would be furnished by the city each morning to haul away the trash and dirt.

At the opening of the meeting after the usual roll call was held and the minutes of the last meeting read, six applications for membership were reported by the new membership committee. The committee has had little chance to work since its appointment and it is expected that many more new names will be presented for membership at the next meeting.

Several communications were read by the secretary and he was instructed to answer all of them direct. Bills, contracted by the association during March, amounting to $18.75 were read and allowed. Under the order of regular business there were no reports made by either standing or special committees.

Under the order of new business, the next "Big Wednesday" which will be held Wednesday, May 3, came up for discussion. The subject of suitably advertising the bargain day was first suggested by the president. H. G. Hackman suggested that button-hole cards be printed and that they be worn by all merchants and clerks and that big bills be printed to give the bargains which will be offered by the merchants. Charles Mauzy was asked to give some suggestion and he thought it best to refer the matter to the advertising committee which carried on the work so well last year. F. E. Wolcott thought the Hackman plan a very good one and moved that it be started. He also stated that he had investigated the "Dollar Day" in Indianapolis and had learned that it had been a partial success, failing in a measure because the merchants had failed to give bargains on the second attempt at the unique day. That led L. L. Allen to remark that the merchants "should give bargains that are bargains" if they expect to attract customers here on "Big Wednesday."

WILL ACT ON THE PETITIONS MAY 2

Commissioners Will be Called on to Consider Perkins Street Improvement at Next Session.

IS FILED WITH AUDITOR STONE

First Street Petition Will be Placed on File First of Next Week.

The petition to improve parts of Perkins, Sixth, Seventh and the township pike which joins Sixth with brick and bound macadam was filed in the county auditor's office today. The petition and the names of the signers will be published in the Tuesday edition of the Semi-weekly Republican, so that the commissioners will have notice of the petition fifteen days or more before it will be presented to them, which is according to the law on that subject. The petition will be presented to the commissioners on Tuesday, May 2, which will be the second day of their regular monthly meeting. The petition is signed by one hundred and eighteen real estate owners in this city.

It will be recalled that the petition is to improve the following described highway in Rushville township, most of which is in the corporate limits: Beginning at a point on the old Fort Wayne road where said road crosses the north line of the southeast quarter of section 32, township 14 north, range 10 east, thence in a southwesterly direction over the Fort Wayne road to Seventh street in the city of Rushville to a point where Seventh street connects with Sixth street, thence in a westerly direction along Sixth street to Perkins street and thence south along Perkins street to the north side of Second street. The petition provides that the city streets shall be paved with brick, while that portion outside of the city limits shall be improved with bound macadam.

There is every reason to believe that the commissioners will order the (Continued on page 4.)

WILL NOT REVERSE A LOCAL DECISION

Appellate Court Refuses to Reverse Judgment Returned in Anna
Hedrick Contract Suit.

AN ERROR IN INSTRUCTIONS

The Appellate court refuses to reverse a judgment of the Rush circuit court because of an error in instructions to the jury, says the Indianapolis Star. Anna Hedrick was awarded the possession of a forty-acre tract of real estate by a jury in the Rush circuit court in a suit against John D. Hedrick, executor of the estate of Peter Hedrick. She pleaded a special contract by which the deceased promised before his death to bequeath her forty acres of real estate, and pay her $1.50 a week if she would care for himself and wife.

The weekly wages had been paid and suit was brought to enforce the contract. In giving instructions to the jury the lower court declared it to be a burden of the defendant to prove the services of the plaintiff were gratuitous, if they were considered such. The court held this in error, but immaterial.

REV. J. W. CONNER VERY ILL

Former Local Pastor Not Expected to Live Many Hours.

The Rev. J. W. Conner of Irvington, pastor of the Main Street Christian church many years ago and well known here, is very low and not expected to live. Rushville people have received word that his condition is critical, but late this afternoon no word of his death had been announced. Mrs. Sarah Guffin and daughter, Mrs. Will Dill, went to Indianapolis today to be at his bedside. The Rev. Mr. Conner has preached funerals here recently, but has not been actively engaged in preaching for some time.

BUSINESS MEN SWEEP STREET

That is Spectacle Which Greeted the Early Pedestrians Down Town
This Morning.

AGREED TO DO IT LAST NIGHT

The spectacle of Rushville's Main street business men out on the paved streets early this morning sweeping as if their lives depended on it is what greeted the early pedestrians down town this morning. At the Rushville Retail Merchants' Association meeting last night, the merchants agreed that each business man should sweep to the middle of the street in front of his place of business and pile the trash and dirt in the gutter. Few business men failed to do as agreed and this morning a regular dust storm was raised as the debris has not been disturbed—except by the wind—for some time. Councilman Moore said at the meeting last night that the city would have wagons out early this morning to haul away the dirt, but this afternoon the nice, neat piles were still all along Main street. The business men contemplate doing the same thing every morning if the newness does not wear off.

Wrongfully by Her Husband,
Thomas Shaw

WERE MARRIED IN GREENSBURG

Charging that she has been treated wrongfully and in an inhuman manner, Anne E. Shaw, living in Williamstown, on the Rush-Decatur county line, filed suit against her husband, Thomas Shaw, in the circuit court late this afternoon. Mrs. Shaw states that they were married in Greensburg, August 20, 1908, and have lived in Williamstown since that time. She avers that her husband is insanely jealous of her and often called her vicious names. In the complaint it is stated that he has caught her, beat her and called her vile names, which are stated. She declares that her husband has conveyed all of his property away to keep her from obtaining alimony. Watson, Titsworth & Green are attorneys for the plaintiff.

CENSUS GIVES RUSHVILLE 4927

Official Return From Washington Late
This Afternoon Shows Gain of 406 in Ten Years.

GLENWOOD, 226; CARTHAGE, 873

Total Population of Township is 6282—Winner of $5 Gold Piece
Announced Tomorrow.

Rushville's population is 4927. That is according to the thirteenth census, a report of which was received by wire at three o'clock this afternoon. The census gives the population of the city by wards as follows: First, 1340; second, 1401; third, 2186. The population of Rushville township, including the city, is 6282. The town of Glenwood is given as 226, and Carthage as 873.

The population of Rushville in 1900 according to the twelfth census was 4521. The census count shows a gain of 406 in ten years which is very small indeed.

This comes as good news to Rushville people as the returns of the last census has been anxiously awaited for many months. Many people have given up in despair while others have accused the newspaper of holding back the total because it was so very small. All of the cities in Indiana over the 5000 mark were announced a few months ago and then Rushville knew that it was not to be included. Since that time the population of several cities under the 5000 mark has been made public.

It will be remembered that the city letter carriers made a careful count of noses about the first of March and found that there were 5218. Local people are inclined to believe that it is nearer the true population of Rushville than the census report gives. There has been talk of a recount but it is probable that it will never be made.

The winner of the five dollar gold piece, offered by the Daily Republican to the person who guessed the nearest number to the population of Rushville, according to the census report, will be announced tomorrow.

COUNTY COUNCIL ADJOURNS

Decide That Heating Plant is Not Needed at Poor Asylum.

The county council adjourned late this afternoon after the two days' special session during which time they have appropriated money for bridges and roads and other county expenses, most of which were appropriations that were not used last year and reverted back to the treasury at the end of the year. They inspected the county power house this morning to investigate whether or not new flues were needed. They visited the county poor asylum to determine whether or not a heating plant was needed and decided that such an improvement is not necessary. They appropriated the $660 for the lights around the court house.

Lesson II.—Second Quarter, For April 9, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings vi, 8-17. Memory Verses, 15-17—Golden Text, Ps. xci, 11—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The beginning of this lesson chapter, the story of the iron that did swim (verse 6), carries me back full forty years to the days of my school-teaching in Halifax, N. S., when after telling this story at the opening services I have seen boys stay in at recess to read it again for themselves. We cannot help thinking of Him who is able to restore lost people, or, rather, save them, however far down they may be. The piece of tree which made the iron swim reminds us of the tree which made bitter waters to become sweet (Ex. xv, 25) and of Him who is the tree of life to all who come to Him, making us to be trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that He may be glorified (Isa. lxi, 3).

The lesson of today opens to us the realities of the unseen and Elisha's beautiful faith in God and communion with Him. I am fascinated with the title "man of God," so often used of Elisha and of others, suggesting, as it does, one whom God owns for Himself and whose one desire is to live for Him, to please Him and to be His faithful messenger. In chapter iv, 9, it is "an holy man of God," and this is more full of significance, for not all men of God are as willing to be holy as they should be. The world, the flesh and the devil are too much for any of us, but victory is possible (II Cor. ii, 14; I John v, 4; Rev. xii, 11).

The king of Syria did not take into account the God of Israel when he warred against Israel. Not many do even in the twentieth century. Even a great many preachers do not seem to know much about Him and still less about a people called Israel, although God never wrought for any other nation as He has done and will yet do for Israel (II Sam. 7, 23; Ps. cxlvii, 20).

The king of Syria was more than once surprised to find the king of Israel elude him and thought that there must be some traitor in the camp who gave away his plans. When one of his servants reminded him that there was a prophet in Israel who could tell what he said even in his bedchamber (verse 12) he foolishly thought that he could take him captive, not considering that if the prophet could save the king of Israel he could also save himself. Learning that the prophet was in Dothan, he sent thither horses and chariots, a great host, and compassed the city about. And now they had him sure. So they had some reason to think, leaving out the supernatural.

The servant of Elisha seemed to think that the case was hopeless. But how grand the confidence of the prophet, "Fear not, for they that be with me are more than they that be with them" (verse 16). How like Paul's "If God be for us who can be against us?" (Rom. viii, 31) or David's "Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear" (Ps. xxvii, 3).

How blessed and comforting the "fear nots" are from Gen. xv, 1, all the way through this heavenly book! How simple and confident the prayer of Elisha, "Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes that he may see!" How swift the answer, and he beheld the mountain full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha (verse 17). "The chariots of God are 20,000, many thousands of angels" (Ps. lxxviii, 17). John saw more than a hundred millions of angels all worshipping the Lamb (Rev. v, 11, 12). These are some of the unseen realities. May they be real to us also.

As the soldiers came to take him he asked the Lord to smite them with blindness, and He did so. Then he led them to the man whom they really wanted, the king of Israel, and prayed the Lord to open their eyes, and they found themselves in Samaria in his power. The king of Israel would fain have smitten them, but Elisha forbade him and told him to feed them and send them home (verse 22). So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel (verse 23, 1. c.).

Again we have a fulfillment of Deut. xxxii, 29, "How should one chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to flight?" A study of the many different ways in which God at different times has shown His power on behalf of His people would be most inspiring to a believer and possibly helpful to one who does not as yet know the Lord.

Take another instance from the next chapter, when the Lord made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host, so that they arose and fled, leaving their tents and horses and asses and everything in their camp and fled for their lives (vii, 67). It is still true that "the angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him and delivereth them" (Ps. xxxiv, 7).

Sometimes it is more for His glory to let the enemy take us and ill treat us, as in the case of Joseph, Micahiah, Jeremiah, Daniel and his friends Peter and John, Paul and others. The night on which our Lord Jesus gave Himself into the hands of His enemies for our sakes He could have had legions of angels for the asking (Matt. xxvi, 52-54). As a spectacle to angels as well as to men we can sometimes glorify Him most in suffering (Phil. i, 29).

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning April 9, 1911.

Topic—Painting the states white.—Ps. xiv, 1-7. (Temperance meeting.) Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

The states need to be painted white. Some of them have been. We give thanks for that. From that we take courage. The good people in some of these commonwealths of ours have seen the terrible evils of the liquor traffic. They have banded themselves together. They have worked and they have prayed. They have risen up in their might and they have declared, "We will have no more of this accursed thing within our borders." And no black spots are left anywhere within them. What these states have done other states can do and ought to do and, we believe, will do. For what moral right has any state to suffer such a traffic as this? It is a curse and nothing but a curse. It curses man, body, brain and soul. It wrecks thousands upon thousands of homes. It fills our almshouses and asylums, our penitentiaries and our prisons. It inspires to all manner of crime. It is always and everywhere the enemy of everything sacred to God and to man.

Because it is all this, and much more than this, the liquor traffic is doomed. It was never nearer death's door than it is today. It is dying hard, but die it must. Do you smile as you read this? Can you not discern the signs of the times? What else does it mean, this battle which is raging all along the line, this campaign of education? Are not millions of our boys and girls being taught the evil effects of alcohol upon the human system? Are not ministers preaching against it? Are not societies working against it? Are not thousands upon thousands beseeching God day and night to deliver us from it? What does it all mean that 72 per cent of our agriculturists discriminate against the man who uses liquor and that 79 per cent of our manufacturers, 88 per cent of our tradesmen and 90 per cent of our railroad officials are doing the same thing? We are not shallow optimists, but we firmly believe that the death-knell of the liquor traffic is already sounding. It would have sounded long ago if men, instead of listening to the voices of ignorance and prejudice, of appetite and greed, had listened to the voices of reason and of conscience, of religion and of God.

No one ought to be in any doubt as to where we stand on this liquor question. Where does Christ stand—Christ, the friend of the poor; Christ, the lover of men? Where Christ stands there also stands the true Christian. It is not enough for us to say, "I am opposed to the liquor traffic." In no way, shape or manner ought we to countenance it. We ought to pray against it. We ought to work against it. We ought to use all our influence against it. We ought to band ourselves with those who are actively engaged in working for its suppression, help with our money in the fight that they are making and do all in our power to hasten the day of victory.

BIBLE READINGS.

Prov. xx, 1; xxiii, 20, 21, 29-32; Isa. xxviii, 7 and 8; Rom. xiv, 13; I Cor. viii, 13; Eph. v, 18.

Some Bible Work.

When our Junior meetings closed for the summer we gave each Junior a booklet made of pink paper and prettily decorated with pictures of flowers, birds and children, cut out of post-cards and picture cards and pasted on the different pages.

The outside cover bore the name of the Junior, and the first page was inscribed, "Junior C. E. Bible Work For the Summer of 1910," and on the other pages were references given, one for each week, to be memorized during the summer.

These were the references: Matt. vi, 28-30, 33; Ps. lxxvii, and the Beatitudes. Each Junior who could recite these verses from memory in the fall was presented with a Junior badge.

They were also given pretty cards with an envelope pasted on the back in which to put their offerings for missions during the vacation.

Both the booklets and the cards were prepared by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor and presented to the Juniors.—Anna E. Pierce.

The whole day depends on the Start—the best Start is a good cup of Coffee

You can't expect all people to call the same kind of coffee—good. Tastes differ. After a generation of experiment, we—who are the largest and oldest house of Coffee experts in the entire world—we have discovered that there are five great divisions of Coffee Tastes and that there are five different blends of coffee which suit these five different tastes. We have, therefore, put up under the family name of Golden Sun Coffee these five great Blends which we have called: Karex, Navarre, Briardale, Vienna, and Mocha & Java. Go to your grocer and ask to see these five different packages and the Golden Sun Table of Tastes which will enable you to select the Blend and Flavor you like best. You may be surprised to find that the Blend which exactly suits your taste is 10 to 20

A good cup of coffee is the blend that suits your particular taste. Golden Sun Coffee is put up in Five different Blends to suit all coffee tastes. Choose the Flavor you like best and have at last your perfect cup of coffee cents a pound lower than the price you have been paying. Many people do not care for the high priced Blends, yet thousands pay high prices, thinking the price makes the quality. It does not. Price is a matter of Blend. This is the first time in Coffee history you have been able to pay for flavor and get the flavor you pay for.

Golden Sun Coffee is perfectly ripened, perfectly roasted, perfectly blended and put up in air-tight pail packets, every packet is hermetically sealed at the critical moment after roasting, to preserve for you table all the rich, natural, volatile oil of the coffee berry.

Your grocer—if he is experienced and anxious to give the best service—will tell you that coffee kept in open bins, or sold by irresponsible peddlers, falls in richness, purity and strength, and gives you much less than you pay for regardless of the price asked. Try this new and only correct way of ordering coffee by the flavor—and by price. It will more than repay you.

Mail Order Catalogues.

The retail merchant has a great deal to learn from the study of these works, one or more of which decorate the tables of most of our homes. Let them learn how it is that concerns can come in under their very noses and get the order for things that can be bought to better advantage at home.

Where the catalogue wins over the poorly written advertisement is in definiteness of description. The frequent cuts help enormously. But even where no cut is used, somebody takes the trouble to describe the fabrics, the appearance, the designs of the goods so clearly, that the reader thinks he sees just how they look.

Could he but see the same goods with his own eyes in the home stores, and ask a few questions about them, he would be apt to find some defect which the clever catalogue writer carefully omitted to speak about.

But the host of orders these catalogues draw out shows what can be done, against the handicaps of distance and public suspicion, by terse, straightforward conversational description of goods, plus statement of prices.

That tarvia idea sounds mighty good. The question of good streets is a very important one in a city the size of Rushville. We can't possibly get all of the streets bricked at once and the next best thing is oil. To tear up the top layer of the earth, pour on the oil and then roll it hard, so that the surface is smooth and level, is fine and the theory will no doubt prove better when put into practice.

Mexican peace terms are now being discussed. We hope they put in a clause against those long crowned cone shaped hats the Mexicans wear, which excite the alarm of peaceably disposed visitors.

Encouraged by Mr. Taft, the dove of peace was beginning to look quite perky, when the German chancellor came along and said she is no better than the old speckled hen.

Washington's sword was burned in the Albany fire, but so long as our militiamen have their swords safe, we shall not fortify our place of business.

Gen Wood says the army mobilization was effected efficiently, and there is no report so far that the soldiers have had to eat their rubber boots.

Mexican insurgents are throwing bombs at Diaz men in jail. This is what comes from allowing school boys to throw spit balls unreprieved.

The end of the New York deadlock blasts our hopes that we would be rid of the senate by a unanimous decision to elect no more senators.

The Albany State house no doubt could have been saved if the veteran firemen had got out the old hand-tub and played on the flames.

Our Daily Prediction.

One city official suggests that the pest house would have made an ideal work house, but, sad to relate, it has been destroyed.

The man who invents a contrivance to shock the phone nibbler will make his fortune easily.

Man was held up on a desolate country road the other night by four masked men. There is a moral to that, but we have misplaced it.

Spelling is being revived in the local high school which we advance as the happy thought of the day.

St. Paul is to take the law into its own hands. The Hors Thief Detective Association is to take the work in hand. That's our idea of nothing to get excited about.

Merchants are industrious who will sweep their own streets.

Yes, who ever said that Rushville merchants were not industrious. That's what we would like to know.

Apparently Street Commissioner Kelley forgot about the orders he received from council to keep Main street clean until other arrangements are made.

improvement at their meeting, when it is presented, as there will not be any remonstrances filed against it, according to all reports. Local attorneys say that it would be useless to attempt to fight the petition, as it would be a losing game from start to finish. They say that the improvement is according to the law and that there is no way to prevent the commissioners from ordering it, if they act according to law.

The commissioners will also have the First street petition to act on at their May meeting, as it will be filed with the county auditor the first of next week and publication notices will be made in the local papers so that the commissioners will have the required fifteen days notice. The First street petition has been circulated for over a week and is being signed by many property owners.

It will be remembered that the petition provides that First street, beginning at the Big Four railroad, and ending at the west side of Main street, shall be paved with brick. The petition further provides that the pike, beginning at the railroad and running to a point west of Cole's lane, shall be improved with bound macadam. The way the two petitions now read, the two blocks on the south and the east side of the court house will not be improved. Many overtures have been made to the promoters of the petitions to include the two blocks in the First street petitions, so that they will not be left a desolate spot among so much improvement. It is argued that the First street petition could be made to run to the south side of Second street instead of Main as the turn at the corner of Perkins and first be made since several turns are made in the Perkins street petition may be changed before it is filed in the auditor's office.

talk along the same line as that started by Mr. Allen, emphasizing the point that the merchants should give real bargains. "If you want to hold a rummage sale," he said, "do not select 'Big Wednesday' to do it, but just put on a little sale of your own." T. W. Betker was called on for a suggestion and had a very original plan as usual. He said that small pennants, containing the words, "Big Wednesday" on a rope and stretched from the fountain at each corner of the court house square to the court house roof would make a very attractive method of advertising. He said that it might be announced in the newspapers that the pennants would always be displayed on the Saturday before "Big Wednesday" so that the people could fix the date exactly. The result of the discussion was that the matter of advertising was referred to the new advertising committee which is composed of Will Bliss, Howard Mullin, Walter Hubbard, Alva Newhouse and V. C. Bodine.

An invitation was extended to the members of the Rushville Retail Merchants Association by the Rushville Glove Company to visit their place of business since they are located in their new quarters, Thursday afternoon, April 13, at three o'clock. F. E. Wolcott moved that the association accept the invitation and call at the glove company on next Thursday afternoon at the time appointed. It was unanimously passed and arrangements were made for the merchants to meet at Wolcott's drug store and inspect the glove company in a body. Many compliments were paid the company by various business men who have seen their new plant and the general opinion was expressed that the industry was a thriving one and deserving of the support and good will of every citizen of Rushville.

L. L. Allen said that the I. & C. freight service had been changed so that it is very inconvenient for local business men who wish hurry-up orders from Indianapolis. He suggested that a committee be appointed to confer with the traction officials and see if a change could not be effected. The following new committee on transportation was instructed to look after the matter: L. L. Allen, Homer Havens, A. L. Aldridge, Ralph Kennedy and Sherman Oneal.

Sherman Oneal was called on by the president to throw some light on the street oiling and street cleaning question. He said that he had made some investigation but was not prepared to make overtures to do the work himself. He referred the association to Mr. Davis of Connersville, who oiled the streets here last year. Ralph Payne moved that Phil Wilk, who was present, be consulted on the question, as his firm has made plans to repair a road near Knightstown with tarvia. The city is figuring with the firm to have similar work done here and for that reason Mr. Wilk said that he had nothing definite to report but that he might be prepared to state something at the next meeting. The general opinion was expressed that it would be much more desirable to give the work to a local concern rather than to the Connersville man.

Ben A. Cox suggested that plans be made to get a complete mailing list which will contain the names of every man, woman and child in Rush county. He stated that he had a complete list of the names on rural routes out of Rushville. Plans were suggested for obtaining the names on rural routes out of the small towns all over the county and the matter was finally referred to the old credit committee. Plans for a complete credit system were also suggested.

G. P. Hunt, treasurer, complained that the Scott-Madden Iron Works had been worrying him much recently asking for pay for the new cluster light posts. Arrangements were made so that the bill was paid today. A committee was appointed to go out at once and raise the remaining $320 which the association is still short on the lights. It was necessary to add a few more posts which made the shortage greater. The light committee is Bert Mullin, Ben Cox, Will Bliss, Earl H. Payne and G. P. Hunt.

hurry up to the Richie home. In a few moments Mrs. Richie was seen to turn her chickens loose. Some were confined in a box and these were released with the rest. The witness stated that she saw Mrs. Richie drive the chickens toward Witters' house. On cross examination she said that sometimes she had seen as many as four hundred chickens in Mrs. Richie's yard and at other times there would be scarcely any. At the time of her observations, Miss Rudell was standing on her front porch and had a clear view of the Richie home.

The third and last witness was Mrs. William Ruddell. Her testimony in substance was about the same as that of her daughter. She had seen the chickens start toward the Witters' home. When asked how friendly she was to Mrs. Richie she stated that she had never been inside of her house. After this testimony the State rested and the squire returned verdict.

The sentiment in Milroy is heavily against Mrs. Richie and some very strong stories have come from there relating and picturing her to be a notorious chicken thief. It is said that the matter will be investigated by the grand jury and an indictment returned if possible.

FINDS CONDITIONS AT HOME VERY GOOD

Henry County Charity Board and Local Women Visit Spiceland Institution.

ONLY EIGHT CHILDREN THERE

Four members of the County Board of Charities visited the Spiceland children's home Wednesday. These were Miss Mary Holloway, Knights-town; Mrs. Florence Hazelrigg of Kennard; Mrs. Samantha Henley of Spiceland, and J. H. Hewitt of New Castle, says the New Castle Times. Three ladies from Rush county also met with the members of the board and made a careful inspection of the home and existing conditions.

Members of the Henry county board were greatly pleased to note improved conditions since their previous visit, and a better tone in general. The health of the children is now good. At present but eight children are in the home and seven of these are from Rush county. This is a radical falling off, as the number had ranged from thirty to a little over forty for two years.

Miss Shelley, the matron, seems anxious and determined to maintain the home on the standard of excellence so long maintained by Mrs. Bundy.

The Compact.

A room, low-ceilinged, dim, gloomy, minister as an inquisition chamber; a single large table in the center, holding a kerosene lamp, writing materials and a metal spheroid a shade larger than a one-pound shell; and around it a semicircle of silent, masked and cowed figures. There were twelve of them, eleven men and a woman. In the shadows, which grew denser at the far end of the room, was a squat, globular object, a massive, smooth-sided, black, threatening thing of iron.

One of the men glanced at his watch—it was just two o'clock—then rose and took a position beside the table, facing the semicircle. He placed the timepiece on the table in front of him.

"Gentlemen," he said, and there was the faintest trace of a foreign accent, "I shall speak English because I know that whatever your nationality all of you are familiar with that tongue. And now an apology for the theatric aspect of all this—the masks, the time and place of meeting, and the rest of it." He paused a moment. "There is only one person living who knows the name and position of all of you," and by a sweep of his hand he indicated the motionless figure of the woman. "It was by her decision that masks are worn, for, while we all know the details of the Latin com-

FOR FALLING HAIR

You Run no Risk When You Use This Remedy.

We promise you that, if your hair is falling out, and you have not let it go too far, you can repair the damage already done by using Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, with persistency and regularity, for a reasonable length of time. It is a scientific, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal preparation, that destroys microbes, stimulates good circulation around the hair roots, promotes hair nourishment, removes dandruff and restores hair health. It is as pleasant to use as pure water, and it is delicately perfumed. It is a real toilet necessity.

We want you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic with our promise that it will cost you nothing unless you are perfectly satisfied with its use. It comes in two sizes, prices 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store, Thom W. Lytle.

teen minutes past two. I am instructed, for the purposes of the test, to place this cap anywhere you may select—in this house or outside of it, in a box, sealed, or under water. The purpose is merely to demonstrate its efficacy; to prove to your complete satisfaction that it can be exploded under practically any conditions."

His entire manner underwent a change; he drew a chair up to the table, and stood for an instant with his hand resting on the back.

"The compact is written in three languages—English, French and Italian. I shall ask you to sign, after reading either or all, precisely as the directions you have received from your home government instruct. On behalf of the three greatest Latin countries, as special envoy of each, I will sign first."

He dropped into the chair, signed each of the three parchment pages three times, then rose and offered the pen to the cowed figure at one end of the semicircle. The man came forward, read the English transcript, studied the three signatures already there with a certain air of surprise, then signed. The second man signed, the third man, and the fourth.

The fifth had just risen to go forward when the door opened silently and Mr. Grimm entered. Without a glance either to right or left, he went straight toward the table, and extended a hand to take the compact.

For an instant there had come amazement, a dumb astonishment, at the intrusion. It passed, and the hand of the man who had done the talking darted out, seized the compact, and held it behind him.

"If you will be good enough to give that to me, your Highness," suggested Mr. Grimm quietly.

For half a minute the masked man stared straight into the listless eyes of the intruder, and then:

"Mr. Grimm, you are in very grave danger."

"That is beside the question," was the reply. "Be good enough to give me that document."

He backed away as he spoke, kicked the door closed with one heel, then leaned against it, facing them.

"Or better yet," he went on after a moment, "burn it. There is a lamp in front of you." He paused for an answer. "It would be absurd of me to attempt to take it by force," he added.

A Portland Gentle Sent Their Little Ones Out Begging.

Portland, Ind., April 7.—Roy, Pearl and Baby Perkins, children of George Perkins of Oklahoma suburb, are to be taken from the parents by the county board of children's guardians through court proceedings. It is charged that the three children are sent out to beg from house to house, for the profit and maintenance of the parents. It is said that Perkins left Muncie some time ago to escape the authorities, a similar charge being made at that city.

Too Much For Buster.

Elkhart, Ind., April 7.—Buster, the Elks' pet cat, climbed up on the cross-arm of a telegraph pole in the rear of the clubhouse and switched his tail over against a high voltage wire. Buster's nine lives were all crowded into one when the 4,000 volts started to circulate, and he was burned up.

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST.

says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

LOOKING OVER HOSPITAL SITE

State University Preparing to Take Advantage of Gift.

MAY DEPEND ON STATE PLAZA

Donation in Favor of State University Made by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Long and Accepted by Legislature, Will Materialize in the Form of a Fine Hospital Which May Form Part of Ambitious Capitol Project.

Indianapolis, April 7.—The trustees of Indiana university, including President William Lowe Bryan and Registrar John W. Cravens, spent part of the day in Military park for the purpose of inspecting it as a possible site for a new hospital to be erected in connection with the Indiana university school of medicine with a donation of $200,000 by Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Long of Indianapolis.

The trustees were favorably impressed with the south end of the park, which a special act of the legislature would allow them to use as a site for the hospital, but have reached no conclusion as to whether or not the hospital should be erected in the park. The trustees said they would prefer to wait until a report is made by the commission appointed to investigate the desirability of obtaining a site for a state plaza, which would also be available as a hospital site, but since ground for the proposed plaza could not be purchased until after the next session of the legislature, two years hence, the trustees may decide to accept the Military park site without waiting for the action of the plaza commission. It is the desire of the trustees to erect the hospital at once if satisfactory arrangements can be made.

RECEIVERSHIP COSTLY

Lawyers' Fees and Other Expenses Amounted to $42,000.

Evansville, Ind., April 7.—The reason why the indorsers on the glass company's paper did not get their claims paid in full was made known in the circuit court at Boonville during the trial of Mrs. Lena Swearingen's suit against Alexander Hutchinson and others for alleged conspiracy in wrecking the plant and ruining a number of small stockholders.

That Percy Hopkins, a law clerk in George A. Cunningham's office, who acted as receiver and trustee in bankruptcy, received $7,500 for his services was testified to by James T. Walker, a witness for the defense, when questioned on cross-examination. The lawyers split $15,000 between them, said Mr. Walker, and other expenses of the bankruptcy proceedings cost $21,500 more. This was a total of $42,000 taken from the assets of the company.

PURDUE WINS OUT

Important Decision of the State Supreme Court.

Indianapolis, April 7.—The supreme court has held that the legislature may lawfully grant aid to the Purdue university experiment station, the horticultural society and other societies organized under the laws of the state for the promotion of interests of the public. The decision was made in affirming the case of Henry W. Bullock against John C. Billheimer, former state auditor, and others, in which the plaintiff sought to restrain the auditor from paying to the various societies the sums appropriated for them by the legislature in 1909. Bullock lost his case in the Marion supreme court, and the supreme court affirmed that judgment.

Warren Gets Life Term.

Anderson, Ind., April 7.—The jury rendered a verdict of guilty in the second degree in the case of Rufus Warren and fixed the penalty at imprisonment for life. Warren was indicted together with James Walker, charged with murder in the first degree as an accessory before the fact to the killing of Virgil Kirkman, an Alexandria policeman, by Walker on the night of March 4.

Miss Brooks Will Appeal.

Hammond, Ind., April 7.—After being out but five minutes, in Judge Frank Green's court at West Hammond, a jury found Miss Virginia Brooks, the young West Hammond reformer, guilty of disorderly conduct as a result of the street paving riot last Saturday a week ago, and fixed her fine at $1 and costs. Miss Brooks will appeal.

New Trustee of Boys' School.

MUCH ADO IS MADE OVER BLACK TROOPS

War Department Changes Its Mind Again.

San Antonio, Tex., April 7.—General W. H. Carter, in command of the division of the mobilized troops at Fort Sam Houston has received an order from the war department advising him that the order detaching the Ninth cavalry of colored troopers from his command had been suspended.
The Ninth will not move from San Antonio, for the present at least, to do patrol duty along the border, as part of the command of the department of Texas. General Duncan, commander of the department of Texas, received similar orders, indicating that for the present the Ninth would not be transferred to his command. This sudden reversal of orders to move the colored cavalry from San Antonio and scatter it along 1,800 miles of border from Brownsville to Fort Hancock, indicates to some extent the state of mind that Congressmen Garner of Texas has passed through during the last forty-eight hours. Incidentally, a state of mind in the war department. As soon as the fact that the Ninth was to do patrol duty became known in the border towns where the patrol posts would be stationed there were instant protests. At Laredo, Sanderson, Eagle Pass and Del Rio the excitement led the inhabitants to send telegrams to their respective representatives in congress, and the reversal followed quickly.

LORIMER CASE TO BE REVIVED

Senate Going to Have Another Investigation.

NEW COMMITTEE PROPOSED

Senator La Follette Has Introduced a Resolution Providing For a Special Committee Headed by Senator Works and Including Townsend, Mc-Lean, Kern and Pomerene, to Look Into Ugly Case.

Washington, April 7.—In connection with the election of William Lorimer as senator a resolution has been introduced by Senator La Follette directing a re-opening of the Lorimer case and the appointment of a committee to investigate charges.

The proposed committee is composed of the following: Senator Works of California, chairman; Senators Townsend of Michigan and Mc-Lean of Connecticut, all Republicans, and Senators Kern of Indiana and Pomerene of Ohio, Democrats. The resolution will be called up Monday for consideration, when it will be for the senate to say whether the investigation shall be made by this special committee or by the committee on privileges and elections. That an investigation will be ordered seems certain.

If the senator from Wisconsin had not moved for the reopening of the case, other senators would have done so. The senate is distinctly shocked by the testimony of C. S. Funk, and the general talk about the body was that if a vote could be taken at this time Lorimer would be unseated.

Would Not Comment on It.
Johnstown, Pa., April 7.—Arriving here on private business, Senator Lorimer was shown a Washington dispatch announcing that La Follette had introduced a resolution calling for a new investigation of Lorimer's election to the senate. Lorimer read the message and then stated that he would not comment on it except on the floor of the senate. Arriving on the train with Lorimer was Edward Tilden of Chicago, whose name has been intimately connected with the Lorimer scandal.

SHOCKING CONDITIONS

Revealed in Report of Chicago Vice Commission.

Chicago, April 7.—Chicago wastes 5,000 women and $15,000,000 in its pursuit of vice every year, according to the report of the "vice commission" of the city council, which has been working on its investigation for nearly a year.

Besides the charges that 5,000 women are destroyed every year by the white slave traffic, the committee denounces the segregation of vice districts. This probably will cause the passage in the council of measures wiping out the "leaves" districts of Chicago, which for years have been the objects of attacks by business men.

The commission finds that the low wages paid to girl workers is one of the greatest causes of the spread of vice. It recommends a "morals board" for the city.

Could Stand It No Longer.

Atlanta, Ga., April 7.—Hounded by his conscience, W. B. Tennent, a young man holding a responsible position here, surrendered to the police, saying that he was wanted at Marcelles, Ill., for killing a man on the night of Aug. 10, 1910. "I just cannot stand it any longer," said Tennent. He is being held pending word from the Illinois town.

Prisoner Became Host.

Rockford, Ill., April 7.—Inmates of the county jail were given a dinner by William Butsch, one of their number, who asked Sheriff Young and his family to attend and to invite a clergyman. The host, who was once a chef, prepared a four course menu, with chicken as the principal food.

Committed Suicide in Jail.

Hickman, Ky., April 7.—The dead body of Jack McLain, who was arrested charged with the murder of his nephew, Andrew McLain, was found in his cell. He had committed suicide by cutting his throat. Andrew Mc-Lain was shot to death on a lonely road.

GOLD SEEKERS

Are Making a Rush For The New Diggings in the Keekeek.

Cobalt, Ont., April 7.—Reports of new gold finds in the Keekeek district of Quebec are startling the camp here and hundreds of miners are planning for a rush into the new Quebec territory, where many claims have already been staked out.

The "good country" extends from Opastika lake to Lake Missinabie, close to the transcontinental line, and it is twenty miles wide. Two thousand licenses have been issued to prospectors at Ville Marie and 6,000 claims have been recorded.

No Trace of Train Robber.

Muncie, Ind., April 7.—A sheriff's posse has been scouring the country in the vicinity of this city searching for the lone bandit who robbed passengers of about $300 on board a Big Four train Wednesday night. The police have arrested two suspects, and every member of the force is straining every effort to capture the right man.

A Blow to the Death Cup.

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—The senate committee on judiciary ordered a favorable report on the bill prohibiting the use of the public drinking cup.
There was little argument in the committee, and there was substantial indication that a majority of the senate will be favorable to the passage of the bill.

Boy Fall's Under Train.

Wabash, Ind., April 7.—James Mokas, aged seven, who had both legs cut off when he fell beneath a freight train which he was attempting to board, died. After the accident he was carried two blocks by a companion two years his senior.

Dedication of Court House.

Perru, Ind., April 7.—The $300,000 courthouse here, erected by Miami county, was dedicated yesterday.
Thomas R. Marshall, governor of Indiana, was the principal speaker. Several thousand people were present.

AUTOS CHANGING BUT LITTLE

Expert Views Motor Car Business from Light of Public Seen at Automobile Shows.

Indianapolis, Ind.—"There has been an evolution in motor car and accessory shows which was very apparent at the New York, Chicago and smaller shows throughout the country this year," says Geo. M. Dickson, General Manager of the National Motor Vehicle Company. Johnny Aitken, a racing driver for the same company, is entered in the $25,000 500-mile International Sweepstakes race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next Memorial Day, May 30.

"In the early days the shows," says
Mr. Dickson, "were promoted to convince the public that the automobile would prove a practical means of transportation. People attended, but were mostly skeptical and viewed with doubt the contraptions which today would seem like strange prehistoric animals."

"Today the automobile is accepted everywhere without question. The present year finds but very few vital changes in design and construction.

The improvements are mostly refinements of details which add to the beauty and comfort and luxury without appreciable increase in cost.

"The cars are mostly standardized and the differences in the various makes which appeal to different people are not freakish features but certain recognized meritorious features of design and construction which are manufactured for varying uses and desires.
The accessory makers have kept pace with the car manufacturers, and their improvements have added much to the comfort of town and country driving."

They Wouldn't Stand For It.

South Bethlehem, Pa., April 5.—
It was an exceedingly trying experience Miss Kate Johnson had here when she appeared on the street in a "harem" skirt. It was the first sight local people had had of the latest style. A crowd gathered and after mobbing her, pelted her with stones.
Cut and bleeding, she was finally rescued by a policeman, who escorted her home.

"DAVID HARUM" TRADE IS MADE

Hayes Stafford of This City Alleges
 he Was Duped in Complaint Filed in Shelbyville.

MARB CLARK IS DEFENDANT

Plaintiff Declares That Mare Sold to Him For $110 as Sound Was a
 "Roarer."

Details of a "hoss trade" made a short time ago by Hayes Stafford of Rushville and Marb Clark of this city, were given the public in a complaint asking for damages in the sum of $200, which was filed Thursday by Stafford in the superior court, says the Shelbyville Democrat.

Stafford says in his complaint that the defendant was the owner of a sorrel mare, which he represented to be seven years old, sound and in good health except that she was slightly "cut in the wind." Stafford avers that Clark told him that such ailment did not in the least impair her ability to travel and do hard work. During the progress of the trade, Stafford says Clark told him the mare would give him good service, as she could travel well and could perform hard and continuous work.

Stafford says he relied on what Clark told him and purchased the mare for the sum of $110. The trade was consummated March 31. But the sad part of the story creeps in at this point. Instead of the animal being as represented Stafford avers that the mare was twelve years old and that she was not sound and in good health. In fact, he says in the complaint that she was what is known on Horse-traders' Alley as being a "roarer," which made her wholly unfit for service and unable to travel or do his work. Stafford says the animal is of no value to him whatever.

The plaintiff says he is engaged in the dairy business in the city of Rushville selling and delivering milk to the residents of that city each day. In his work, he alleges, he must have a good horse. He says he has attempted to use the mare purchased from Clark, but that by reason of her diseased condition she can not travel or do the work required of her in his business. He says he has no other horse and that on account of the condition of the animal he purchased from the defendant he has been compelled to hire another horse at a great inconvenience and expense.

The plaintiff says that the said disease of which the animal is afflicted is of such a nature as not to be observable and could not be detected excepting when attempting to work her. He did not find out that she was thus afflicted until after he had taken possession of her. Stafford says he offered to return the mare on April 4, at which time he demanded the return of the purchase price, but that Clark refused to accept the animal or return the amount he received for her.

St. Paul's Horse Thieves Association to Take a Hand.

St. Paul is to have no more of the terrible conditions that have existed there for months. The Horses Thieves Detective Association met Wednesday night and took in forty new members. They propose to take the law in their own hands and bring future St. Paul culprits to justice. It is said that St. Paul residents deplore the lax methods of the Greensburg officers, which makes it imperative that the members of the association act at once.

LOCAL NEWS

An eight pound boy has been born to the wife of John Andrews in North Sexton street.

The officials of the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern Traction Company are making plans to double track the road and the work will be started at once.

The funeral services of Mrs. Taylor Warfield were held this afternoon at the St. Paul M. E. church. Many friends and relatives from surrounding cities and towns attended.

The engagement is announced of Mill Zella Mae Bundy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bundy and J. R. Publow, both of Carthage. The wedding will take place April 20, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Shelbyville papers have begun to omit news of the smallpox epidemic there, or else give the situation a bare mention. It is presumed that pressure has been brought to bear to keep the news of the smallpox situation out of the papers for fear the truth of the matter will keep people away from Shelbyville. One Shelbyville paper reports that two new cases were placed under quarantine yesterday.
